Congress 2022 Schedule Notes:

Note 1: National Museum of the Marine Corps is in Triangle VA, a short bus ride away. Bus or Uber will be decided, based on the number of people who sign up. Museum is free (donations accepted) and lunch at Tun Tavern will be “no host” pub food.

Note 2: The Host Committee will provide you with a guide to explore Alexandria and Washington DC. Perhaps you’ve been here many times before, but have never been to Mt. Vernon, George Washington’s estate. Or maybe you want to see the First Ladies’ Inaugural Ball Gowns at the Smithsonian. Or maybe you’ve heard about the U.S. Navy Memorial or the U.S. Marine Corps Memorial “Iwo Jima” and would like to see them close up. We also have a tour arranged of maritime history and events in Old Town Alexandria. These and dozens more attractions await your “journey of exploration.”

Note 3: There is a free King Street trolley to take us to local restaurants.

Note 4: Arlington National Cemetery is an unforgettable visit. There is good Metro (subway) service from our hotel to the cemetery. We will depart as a group and take the tram tour of ANC, seeing the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns, the Kennedy gravesite, and many other features. (Modest cost for Metro). From there, either back to the hotel or off to DC by Metro to see the U.S. Navy Memorial, Smithsonian Museum(s), Library of Congress, WIMSA Memorial at Arlington, etc. Lunch will be on your own.

Note 5: Annapolis and USNA – Round trip by chartered Bus ($50 addl/pp) to include: USNA Visitor Center, Commodore John Barry Plaza and Memorial, USNA Chapel (Crypt and John Paul Jones Memorial), RADM Grace M. Hopper Hall and Cyber Warfare Center (briefing and plaque presentation), and the USNA Museum. Lunch is independent (on your own), either at the Academy’s Officers Club or on the town in Annapolis.

Note 6: Trafalgar Night option: Friday night. Have you been to a British Officers’ Formal Dinner? It’s quite the thing. Take an Uber or Carpool ride to Fairfax Country Club to join the British Officers’ Club of Washington DC at their annual celebration of Lord Nelson’s Victory off Cape Trafalgar. (Separate registration: $93 per person. More details upon registration.)
